out, "Abba, Father."

"God is in you; He is not leaving. We must not just get used to that, we must start to trade on that because sometimes we live like God is not there, or like we have to persuade Him to show up. What's that about?! You can't have a habitation encounter with God at salvation and then downgrade it to a visitation culture in your experience. It is not who we are. We are a habitation of God. We have the joy of the Lord. We have the peace that passes all understanding. We are absolutely beloved of God. We are accepted in the Beloved. We have the mind of Christ. Our only problem is we don't quite realize how brilliant we are yet! But we are getting there. We are on that road. We are learning to grow up in all things in Jesus." ~ Graham Cooke
